I. INTRODUCTION

The individuals are different from each other in terms of number of factors, i.e. caste, creed, race, religion, ethnicity, gender, cultures, educational qualifications, occupations, personality traits, and socio-economic backgrounds. The aspects of pleasure, security and gratification are important in lives of the individuals. The individuals are engaged in different tasks and activities in accordance to their educational qualifications, competencies and abilities.

Within personal and professional lives, these are important. Hence, throughout the lives of the individuals, they are required to understand these in an efficacious manner (Raluca, 2020) [4] [5]. The individuals are required to be well-versed in terms of measures, which are facilitating in leading to reinforcement of pleasure, security and gratification. The measures are implemented when one is dealing with others, as well as when one is putting into practice various tasks and activities. One of the important aspects that needs to be taken into account is, positivity needs to be reinforced in all measures. Therefore, it is well-understood, individuals are contributing efficiently in promoting pleasure, security and gratification [6] [7] [8].

The individuals are required to be well-versed in terms of all types of job duties and responsibilities that they are required to be put into operation within as well as outside the homes. These are complicated as well as manageable, these are implemented in less amount of time or can be more time-consuming and these are put into operation on one's own as well as through working in co-ordination with others (Chapter 9, n.d.) [1]. The individuals need to make sure that the job duties and responsibilities are pleasing to others. In other words, they need to be advantageous to family and community members. The family members, educators, supervisors, employers, friends, classmates and colleagues are the individuals, who are imparting information in terms of different types of job duties and responsibilities. As a consequence of carrying these out in a well-ordered and disciplined manner, individuals will render an important contribution in pleasing others. Hence, individuals will contribute significantly in augmenting pleasure, security and gratification. Therefore, it can be stated, implementing job duties in a well-ordered manner will be facilitating to the individuals in promoting pleasure, security and gratification.

A. Understanding the Significance of Promoting Pleasure, Security and Gratification
